Deerfield Insurance Group's Muñiz-Olán and Jessen named to local boards

The Cincinnati Arts Association (CAA) elected Antonio Muñiz-Olán, President & CEO of Muñiz & Associates LLC to its Board of Trustees.

"We are delighted to welcome these community leaders to CAA's exceptional Board of Trustees," said Steve Loftin, President and Executive Director of the Cincinnati Arts Association. "These new members will undoubtedly add a rich diversity of backgrounds, talents, and experience to our Board, as they assist us in advancing our mission."

Doni Jessen, Vice President of Muñiz & Associates LLC, was elected to the board of directors of the Greater Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky African American Chamber of Commerce. Ms Jessen also serves on the board of directors of the Hispanic Chamber Cincinnati USA and her role will expand to forge a stronger partnership between the two Chambers.

Ms Jessen was also selected to serve on the Diversity Committee of the Cincinnati Ballet's Board of Trustees. This committee provides guidance to the organization in its efforts to diversify its shows, audiences, and leadership.

About Cincinnati Arts Association:

Founded in 1992, the Cincinnati Arts Association (CAA) is a not-for-profit organization that oversees the programming and management of two of the Tri-state's finest performing arts venues – the Aronoff Center for the Arts and Music Hall – and is dedicated to supporting performing and visual arts. Each year, CAA presents a diverse schedule of events; serves upwards of 700,000 people in its venues; features the work of talented local, regional, and national artists in the Weston Art Gallery (located in the Aronoff Center); and supports the work of more than one dozen resident companies. Since the inception of its acclaimed arts education programs in 1995, CAA has reached three-quarters of a million students.
